

TALANTA WILL DO THE FOLLOWING IN ORDER TO PRODUCE HIGH - QULITY VOCATIONAL EDUCATION

1. Strong industry involvement

TALANTA will continuously interact with:

1. Employers.
2. Manufacturers.
3. Contractors.
4. Professional associations.
5. Chambers of commerce.
6. Government agencies.
7. Industry experts.
8. Alumni.
9. Labour-market institutions.
10. Technology companies.

2. Competency-based education

TALANTA will train Students according to:

1. Occupational competencies.
2. Practical tasks.
3. Performance standards.
4. Industry requirements.
5. Measurable learning outcomes.

3. Extensive practical training

TALANTA will provide:

1. Workshops.
2. Laboratories.
3. Simulated workplaces.

4. Training factories.
5. Garages.
6. Kitchens.
7. Salons.
8. Construction sites.
9. ICT laboratories.
10. Real customer projects.

4. Industry-standard equipment

TALANTA will continuously upgrade:

1. Machines.
2. Tools.
3. Software.
4. Safety equipment.
5. Diagnostic equipment.
6. Digital systems.
7. Measurement instruments.
8. Automation systems.
9. Simulation systems.
10. Production equipment.

5. Highly competent trainers

TALANTA will employ trainers who possess:

1. Technical knowledge.
2. Practical industry experience.
3. Teaching competence.
4. Assessment competence.
5. Digital competence.

6. Communication skills.
7. Safety competence.
8. Current industry knowledge.
9. Mentoring ability.
10. Continuous professional development.

6. Strong assessment systems

TALANTA will assess:

1. Knowledge.
2. Practical skills.
3. Problem-solving.
4. Safety.
5. Professional behaviour.
6. Accuracy.
7. Productivity.
8. Quality of finished work.
9. Independence.
10. Ability to perform under real conditions.

7. Strong quality assurance

TALANTA will continuously monitor education quality.

PLAN → IMPLEMENT → EVALUATE → REVIEW/IMPROVE.